You will also be invited to try their new macerated vodkas, Belvedere Cytrus and Belvedere Pomarańcza, both bursting with real fruit aromas and flavors, which can only be achieved by using the essential oils from citrus peels. Belvedere Pomarańcza is an inspired blend of sweet Moroccan orange and exotic orange blossom water, Spanish mandarin orange, and Spanish and Mexican limes. Belvedere Cytrus seamlessly combines the crisp essence of summer and winter lemons with the tropical complexity of limes.

Nalewki Staropolskie tasting

Nalewki Staropolskie – Traditional Polish Herb and Fruit Vodkas – are made to ancient recipes. Fruit of the most noble variety, organically cultivated in small country orchards is integrated with the best varieties of spirit. The Nalewki are 100% home-produced, with no preservatives, taste enhancers, artificial colorings or chemical substances whatsoever.

The taste of Nalewki is naturally enriched with aromatic spices, such as fresh juniper fruit, raisins, vanilla, cinnamon sticks, almonds, cloves, honeycombs, orange and lemon peel, fresh ginger, oak bark, the inside of the walnut shell, fresh fir shoots.

Nalewki Staropolskie first mature in the sun, which extracts from the fruit the full bouquet of the most exquisite aromas and tastes. Next, for over 10 months at least, in deep cellars, they are allowed to develop in glass demi-johns and oak barrels. Once the Nalewki have fully developed, they are filtered and bottled.
